The postponement of Trades Day
from Armistice Day to Wednesday, November 18, in no way hindered the success of the drawing as one of the largest crowds yet to attend was present on that day. Great numbers of tickets were in evidence, yet several premium numbers had to be drawn twice. Anyone having tickets, if it be only one, should be present at the drawing—that one ticket may make you the winner of a cow, a hog, chickens or a special prize.
The following people were on hand and were winners for the day: first, the cow, by Arthur Grell; second, two pigs, by Mrs. R. B. Reynolds; third, a pen of chickens, by Mrs. Harry Crouch. Special prizes were won as follows: donated by Herman Weynand, Mrs. W. H. Smith; by the on the program was outstanding, especially "To a Water-Lily" by Mc-Dowell. His other numbers were "Solferetto" by Bach, which gave the opportunity of showing his brilliant technique, as did Grainger's "Country Gardens." Jack is a pupil of Florence W. Brush of San Antonio.

Later he is to be presented on a radio program over K. T. S. A.

LADIES' BRIDGE CLUB.

Mrs. Frank Schweers entertained the members of her club, the Ladies' meeting at the home of Mrs. A.

Schuehle with Mrs. W. C. Scott joint hostess. The meeting was opened by the president in regular form. After business was attended to, Rev. R. W.
Merrill was asked to read scripture from the Bible on gossiping, after which Mrs. Scott proved that we were all gossipers. Delicious refreshments of pie and coffee were served to the following: Mesdames Will Earnest, Robt. Kollman, Joe Dillon, Fred Mc-Williams, Elsie Worden, Jack Lacey, second, "Caught", with Richard Arlen, which is also plenty good. No foolin', don't miss this.

A COMMUNITY THANKSGIVING SERVICE.

When we pause to think, even this year there are abundant reasons to be thankful. Let us give thanks for this rare opportunity to prove ourselves worthy of our rugged ancestors; let us cease to cower before the mythical monster of fear, and though still striving for material welfare, let us take inspiration from our own souls so that in the contest between the material and spiritual forces the spirit shall not surrender. While there has been an abundant harvest yet there are many who are jobless and despairing, women and children hungry and desperate. Winter lies ahead, be kind and generous, eat less, drink less, indulge in fewer luxuries, that there may be more. Be thankful that so many have a surplus to share.

Everyone is invited to this community Thanksgiving service to be held at the Methodist church, Wednesday evening, Nov. 25, at 7:15 o'clock.

Opening Hymn, "Come, Thou Almighty King," led by Choir.

caster.
Solo, Miss Margaret Dillon.

Are you Thankful? Say so.

the three that had been put in Wednesday afternoon were soon finished, and two more donated by Mrs.
H. H. Crow, making a total of five quilts to be sent to Buckner's Orphans' Home.

AND THEY LEARNED ABOUT TURKEYS.

One of the best and most instructive meetings for the study of farm problems ever held in Medina County, was that of the Turkey Grading school held at the Earl Watson Produce Store Saturday of last week. The school was attended by about 100 interested parties from various parts of the county.

Paul A. Cunyus, Assistant Poultry
Husbandman from the Extension Service of A. & M. College, conducted the meeting and converted it into a general Turkey school. In the morning the Selection of Breeding Stock and the Care and Treatment of the Flock for Greater Egg Production were studied. Also the Taking Care of Poults came in for discussion.

In the afternoon, Grading and Judging Live Turkeys was first considered and then some of the judged birds were slaughtered and the judging points checked up. A demonstration of the proper sticking and bleeding of turkeys and dry-picking of the birds was given.
This proved a most interesting and valuable feature of the program.

The attendants spent the day at the meeting and gleaned much useful information. Mr. C. M. Merritt, County Agent, who secured Mr.
Cunyus' services and planned the meeting, says it is the best of the kind the county has had in a long time.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.

There is a pass in Scotland called Glencoe. The road through Glencoe carries the traveler up a long steep ascent with many a winding and many a little turning in its course.
But when the top of the pass is reached, a stone is seen by the wayside, with these simple words engraved on it: "Rest and be thankful."

Thanksgiving Day is such a similar milestone on life's highway. To all men the call is issued by our Chief Executive: "Rest and be thankful."
The hearts of men tell them it is the proper thing to do. The Government of our land requests it. Our Heavenly Father commands it and is pleased with it.

"O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good, and His mercy endureth forever!"

"Thou crownest the year with Thy goodness."

"O, that men would praise the Lord for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men." Psalm 107, 8.

This year of all years that heart is truly blessed which will look to God and with heart and soul thank Him for many material gifts, and for all spiritual gifts.

How are you going to observe this day of Thanksgiving? My friend we invite you, "Come, enter the courts of the Lord with gladness, come before His presence with singing."

For all who desire to please the Lord and bring a blessing to themselves, there will be a special Thanksgiving Day service at our Church on Thursday, Nov. 26, at 10 A. M. You are welcome to attend. The choir will assist in beautifying this service.

Sunday, Nov. 22, German service at 10:30 A. M.

Sunday school will begin at 9:15.
The choir meets on Wednesday at 7:30 for rehearsal.

Regular catechetical instruction will be held on Saturday morning at 8:30.

JUNIOR BRIDGE CLUB.

The Junior Bridge Club enjoyed a delightful afternoon, Friday with Mrs. Eugene Mofield as hostess at the beautiful home of her sister, Mrs. Elsie Worden. The reception rooms were tastefully decorated in cut flowers.

Mrs. Charles Monkhouse held high score and Mrs. Barnitz Carle low. A delicious salad course was served to the following members, and guests: Mesdames Barnitz Carle,
L. E. Kollman, Jack Lacy, Garland
Martin, Henry Merriman, Charles Monkhouse, Elsie Worden, Misses

HIGH SCHOOL HAPPENINGS

FROM THE OWL

HISTORY OF THE SPANISH CLUB.

The present Spanish Club came into existence with the coming of Mr. Fluker in 1928 with a membership of 25. A constitution (in Spanish) stating the purposes, laws etc., of the club was framed and the following officers elected:

President, Thomas Taylor.
Vice-President, Jonell Rothe
Secretary, Armor Lee Embrey
Meetings were held every two weeks with a Social Meeting every two months. The outstanding meetings of the year were Spanish Play meetings and Initiation meetings when 18 new members were initiated. Twelve members joined at the first initiation meeting held at the beginning of the term and eight Freshmen joined at the next Initiation meeting in January.

The club pin, designed by the members of the club, features a gold coat-of-arms of Spain on an onyx background with a gold rim. The letters, H. S. C. the name of the original club are on the crest. This pin was chosen as the official pin and is in use to-day.

In 1929 Ulrich Burger was chosen President, Lucille Boon, Vice-President and Ava Embrey, Secretary-Treasurer. Sixteen new members were admitted at the Initiation Meeting in October making a total of thirty members. The outstanding meetings of this year were those featuring the Treasure Hunt and Womanless Wedding. An all Spanish Speaking Meeting was held every fourth meeting. The name, "El Circulo Espanol" was selected. The motto, "Adelante, Siempre Adelante", colors, maroon and gold, were also selected. The pledge chosen is the pledge to the U. S. flag and is as follows:

El Juramento de Fidelidad
Jure fidelidad a la bandera de los Estados Unidos y a la Republica de la Espana simboliza; Nacion una e indivisible, con libertad y justicia para todos.

In 1931 Jean Ulbrich was elected President and the following others were elected: Vice-President, Mary Lois Barnes; Secretary-Treasurer, Lucille Van Fleet; Reporter, Gladys Fusselman; Sergeant-at-arms, George F. Wilson. The outstanding meetings were the Track Meet, Basket Ball Tournament, All Spanish Meeting and Initiation Meeting when twenty new members were taken in.

It has been through the efforts of Mr. Fluker, Spanish teacher of Hondo High School, that the Spanish Club has been able to come up to its present standards. The educational benefits derived from "El Circulo Espanol" are: It helps students learn Spanish and is an incentive to make higher grades in order to be eligible for membership. It promotes good fellowship between teachers and students which makes it of value socially. It also develops leadership among the students.

Plans for this year include an enlarged membership, entire membership present at every meeting, a meeting every two weeks in the following order:

Program and business meeting.
Spanish meeting.
Program and business meeting
Social meeting.
And a Spanish banquet featuring Mexican dishes at the close of the school year.

OWLS LOSE TO UVALDE.

On November 6 the Hondo Owls journeyed to Uvalde where they met defeat at the hands of the Uvalde Coyotes by a score of 32 to 7. This was the Owls' first defeat for a Conference game this season. It was their third conference game.

The Owls played a defensive game first half, pulling only one or two plays for short gains. Finger's return punts were short compared to former punting thus losing many yards for the Owls. However, the Owls held the Coyotes' bravny ball club to 13 points in the first half.

The second half began with Finger's interception of a pass and a sixty yard run for the Owls' only tally. Taylor kicked the extra point making the score 13 to 7 in the third quarter. Following this A. Finger was injured and had to leave the game thus disheartening the Owls considerably. In the following and last quarter the coyotes massed their strength and power to run the score up to 32 to 7 at the end of the game.

The Owls put up a real battle and really did not deserve the hard luck that befell them. They had the disadvantage in the fact that they were out-weighted about twenty-two pounds to the man and that the Coyotes were playing on their home field. The Owls averaged about 142 pounds to the man while the Coyotes averaged about 164 pounds to the man.

The Owls received plenty support from the Pep Squad and other Hondo rosters. Let's help the Owls be here all Friday.

OWLETS DEFEAT SAN ANTONIO.

Hondo's Junior "Owlets" took Alamo Heights Juniors to a cleaning last Friday on the latter's gridiron, by the score of 25 to 0. Both teams exhibited a sterling brand of football, and the way teams lined up, charged, and ran their plays, drew favorable comment from the crowd. The game was practically devoid of penalties, Hondo three off-sides, and Alamo Heights having one man disqualified for roughness.

Alamo Heights made only four first downs thru the sterling Owlet line, two of them coming in the last quarter. The Owlets gained at will thru the line, always being stopped by the big and fast Heights backs. Early in the game the Owlets carried the ball on line plays to the goal line, where the Heights line stiffened. Stiegler then passed to Oefinger over the goal line for a touchdown. A second touchdown came just before the half was up. Stiegler passing over the safety man's head to Jones, who scampered the remaining fifteen yards for the marker. Stiegler went over for the extra point. The half ended as Taylor took a long pass and was downed on the ten yard line.

The last half was a repetition of the first, the Owlets scoring one touchdown in each period. Jackie Schuehle went over for the first one on a spin over center, while Oefinger hit off tackle for the last marker, just before the game ended.

To mention a star for the Owlets would discredit the work of the rest. The entire team played good football and teamwork was evident on each play. All the backs carried the ball well, and the line opened holes for the proverbial wagon.

The Owlets are hoping that Mr. Barry will arrange them another game in the near future.

HONDO HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS' GLEE CLUB AND ORCHESTRA.

The Hondo High School Glee Club was organized in January 1930. In the beginning it had only nine members, but it has grown until at present it, together with our orchestra, has a membership of seventy-five. Our first presentation, a musical farce, "No Man's Land", was presented in April 1930. During the summer of 1930 our work was continued without intermission, and we furnished both choral and orchestral music for the Sheep and Goat Raisers' Convention at Rock Springs.

Over one hundred from Hondo participated in this event. On December 13, 1930 we presented the comic opera, "Fra Diavolo", translated and arranged by our director, Mr. Ed. Armstrong. At Easter 1931 we presented a cantata, "The First Easter", by Ira B. Wilson. In conjunction with the other named programs, we have devoted some time to musical theory, history, and various numbers of program material. Our high school is a member of the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the Southern States.

Our orchestra consists of thirty-two members, who accompany the Glee Club in its programs, and it also plays other classical and semi-classical numbers. Many of the Glee Club girls also play in the orchestra. Our organization is less than two years old, but it is self-supporting and continues its work through the summer. We joined the Texas Federation of Music Clubs on September 1, 1931.

The girls with three stripes and a star on their uniforms are in their third semester. Two stripes stand for second semester workers, and Whenever you have some nagging ache or pain, take some tablets of Bayer Aspirin. Relief is immediate!

There's scarcely ever an ache or pain that Bayer Aspirin won't relieve—and never a time when you can't take it.

The tablets with the Bayer cross are always safe. They don't depress the heart, or otherwise harm you. Use them just as often as they can spare you any pain or discomfort. Just be sure to buy the genuine. Examine the package. Beware of imitations.

Aspirin is the trade-mark of Bayer manufacture of monoaceticacidester of salicylic acid.

CHILD need REGULATING?

CASTORIA WILL DO IT!

When your child needs regulating, remember this: the organs of babies and children are delicate. Little bowels must be gently urged—never forced. That's why Castoria is used by so many doctors and mothers. It is specially made for children's ailments; contains no harsh, harmful drugs, no narcotics. You can safely give it to young infants for colic pains. Yet it is an equally effective regulator for older children. The next time your child has a little cold or fever, or a digestive upset, give him the help of Castoria, the children's own remedy. Genuine Castoria always has the name:

LATEST FROM A. & M.

The ex-Owls, now attending A. & M., seem to be surviving the "whips and scoldings" of college life. We hope their lot in old Hondo Hi has not been pushed too far into the background. What with exams, drills and studying (strange as it seems) they seem very thankful for the approaching holidays.

Too Much ACID

MANY people, two hours after eating, suffer indigestion as they call it. It is usually excess acid. Correct it with an alkali. The best way, the quick, harmless and efficient way, is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained for 50 years the standard with physicians. One spoonful in water neutralizes many times its volume in stomach acids, and at once. The symptoms disappear in five minutes.

You will never use crude methods when you know this better method. And you will never suffer from excess acid when you prove out this easy relief.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 25c and 50c a bottle—any drug store.

The ideal dentifrice for clean teeth and healthy gums is Phillips' Dental Magnesia tooth-paste.

Work Weary "NERVES"

Do they make you Restless, Cranky, Tired, Sleepless, Dyspeptic, Head-achy? Do they spoil your pleasure and interfere with your work?

Tens of thousands have found a way to get relief from over-worked nerves—a way so simple, so pleasant, so low in cost, that we are constantly receiving letters that say, "If I had only found Effervescent Nerve Tablets sooner." Simon Brandt writes:

"I was very nervous from over-work. I couldn't sleep well, appetite was poor, and I felt weak for a long time.

"Used Dr. Miles' Nervine and now feel fifteen years younger and I am working the same as I did before—fourteen to fifteen hours daily.

"Sorry I did not learn about this wonderful medicine sooner as I had tried everything I could hear of, without results, until Dr. Miles' Nervine put me back on my feet."

When you are nervous, try this—put a Dr. Miles' Effervescent Nerve Tablet into a glass of water. Watch it bubble up like sparkling spring water—drink it—enjoy the feeling of calm and relaxation that follows.

In Dr. Miles' Effervescent Nerve Tablets a splendid formula for soothing overworked nerves is combined with bicarbonate of soda and citric acid which tend to correct hyper-acidity—a frequent cause of nervousness.

MAKE THIS TEST.

Pen off a few of your birds that you have reason to believe are worm infested. About one hour after feeding them give each a Gizzard Capsule. Simply open the fowl's beak and slip the Capsule in, pushing it well back with the finger so that it will be swallowed immediately. That's all there is to worming with the Gizzard Capsule. No previous preparation, dieting, starving or long course treatment. Keep the wormed birds in a separate pen for twenty-four hours and observe their droppings. We believe you will be astounded at the number of worms. Note how quickly the birds show indications of improved health—increased vitality and strength.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES.

We are reminded by a glance at the calendar that another year has almost slipped away, and that the blanket of winter will soon leave its sign of desolation. Autumn with its golden tint is to be seen all around us. While nature is changed by the seasons, and passes into a dormant state, let us remember that there is a land of eternal springtime, and we can enjoy the reality of it by persistently being engaged in the activities of building His Kingdom here.

The Christian life is the only life. Everyone who will, can live this only life if they will do so.

Start the new Conference year right, come to Sunday school and Church Sunday.

Subject, Sunday morning, "I Believe".

Evening Subject, "Are we Thankful?"

A 25c HOG.

A. J. Graff received a registered Duroc pig that he bought near Dallas. This pig is about 7 months old and has been at different fairs, the last being the State Fair at Dallas, taking Blues as he went. Mr. Graff has been raising Registered Duroc's for about 15 years and has shown some prize winners at fairs, especially in the quick maturing kind.

He figures this pig costs him around 25c per pound, but as an experienced hog breeder he says he didn't pay for what he got but got what he paid for.

A FAREWELL PARTY.

On Thursday of last week, Mrs. M. S. Koch gave a farewell party to a number of her relatives and friends, preparatory to the family's departure soon for San Antonio, where they expect to make their home in the future.

Those present were: Mesdames Toby Koch, Leo Batot, Robert Koch, Nick Koch, Chas. Fildeman, Wm. O'Donald and Robert Zerr, all of Hondo; Wm. Finger, Lena Langfeldt, Charles Hubbard, Ernest Mueller, Hubert Franger, Elizabeth Ney, Christina Rudinger, F. Kimmery, Joe Rieber, Will Turner, Nick Fohn, John Rieber, Alf. Zinsmeyer, Ed. Koch and daughter, Marie, and Louis Garteiser all of D'Hanis; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moore and Mrs. Louis Koch and children of San Antonio came out to enjoy the event.

Rook was played all afternoon and Mrs. Robert Koch won the prize, a pair of tatted pillow cases, made by Mrs. M. S. Koch.

The event closed with a nice supper of barbecue, salads, pickles, cake and coffee. A most enjoyable time was had, but a touch of sadness prevailed because of the farewell nature of the affair. All regret that the family are moving away but hope the change will benefit Mrs. Koch's health, she having been indisposed and confined to her bed for the past several months.

LOST THREE TURKEYS.

Hunters should be more careful. Mr. Ben De Grodt reports that a party killed three of his gobblers recently and carried them off. Mr. De Grodt gives them credit for mistaking them for wild ones, but hopes other hunters will be more certain of what they are shooting, and not force him to regard them as poultry thieves. Game wardens should inspect the birds killed by hunters closely and afford protection to the farmers tame flock.

COLONIAL COVERINGS

"The Dawn Trail", Buck Jones' latest starring vehicle for Columbia is due at the Colonial Theatre on Saturday. Again the screen's dardevil is involved in a series of thrilling escapades but this time a new note is introduced in the interesting love angle. A strong supporting cast includes Miriam Seegar, Charles Morton, Hank Mann and Ed LeSalle. She was not happy being bad but the racket wouldn't let her be good. That's the unfortunate situation. Max Clark, the heroine of "The Good Girl," the Columbia drama coming to the Colonial Theatre Sunday and Monday, finds herself in. How she overpowers the forces working against her comprises a picture that approaches the popular gangster theme from the woman's angle. However, the gangster element is kept in the background, the stress being laid on the woman in the story. Others in the picture are James Hall, Robert Ellis, Marie Prevost, Paul Porcasi, Nana O'Neil and Edmund Breese.

Just as "An American Tragedy" Theodore Dreiser's novel, made history in literature; just as its dramatization made history on the stage, so the screen production of this thrilling story, which the Colonial Theatre will feature for two days starting Thursday, makes motion picture history. "An American Tragedy," the talking picture, is based on Dreiser's novel. It is a story of youth in the mad, modern age with ambition vying with love, one love conflicting with another, and a boy groping his way recklessly out of a situation which he is too weak to face. Phillips Holmes, blonde hero, has the leading role, with Sylvia Sidney and Frances Dee, carrying the two important feminine roles. An interesting cast supports the leading characters.

STEERS PUT ON FEED.

Two hundred and fifty-four year old steers were put on feed September 25 in Medina county, Texas. These steers will be fed out on the shares. The farmers are to furnish the feed and labor and the other party furnishes the steers. They are to be fed 120 days. Records will be kept on all feeding demonstrations. This is a new industry and will be watched by many ranchmen and farmers. —C. M. Merritt, county agent, in Farm and Ranch.

A number of Hondo people accompanied the Girls' Glee Club to Kerrville Saturday and they speak enthusiastically of the hospitality shown them by the people of Kerrville. ## SOUTHERN MAGAZINE WRITES UP TEXAS.

"Nine deep-water ports make the Texas Gulf Coast the front door to the world's markets for half a dozen great states, and give Texas a rank second only to New York as an exporting state. Exports and imports moving through Texas ports in 1929 amounted to $732,000,000, and coast-wise trade was only a little short of a billion dollars," writes T. C. Richardson in his article on Texas which is published in the December issue of HOLLAND'S, the Magazine of the South. In further reference to Texas, Mr. Richardson says, "The greatest manufacturing enterprise in the state, very naturally, is the refining of petroleum. Standing at the top of the list as an oil producing state—the average for 1929-1930 was 295,000,000 barrels—refined products run approximately half a billion dollars. The East Texas oil field, of now stormy history, has been called by geologists the greatest proved field in the world, with a potential production of about 1,300,000,000 barrels. Naturally, new refineries have sprung up in the shadow of the derricks, and pipe-line connections have been made from the new field to the greatest refining district in the world, among the Houston-Beaumont-Port Arthur deep-water facilities, whence the refined products go all over the globe. "Texas has long been a billion-dollar state in agricultural and ranch products; and about 1924 she topped the billion-dollar mark in manufactures. Next to petroleum refining, in the order of total value of the products, come meat packing, eighty-five million dollars; cottonseed products, eighty millions; flour and other grain mill products, forty-nine million; lumber and timber products, forty-four millions. Car construction and repairs, foundry and machine shops, printing and publishing, wood preserving, cotton goods, bread and other bakery products each contributes from twenty to forty million dollars to the total."

ALWAYS TREAT OATS FOR SMUT.

By L. A. Hawkins

Agricultural Extension Department International Harvester Company.

Failure to treat oats for smut results in an enormous annual loss to the farmers of America. It is very easy to get rid of smut—so easy that it seems almost criminal not to do so.

Two men working four minutes can treat enough oats for smut at a cost of four or five cents to plant an acre of ground. The increased yield of oats that will result will net from $3 to $6.

When the time and expense required are so small and the increased yield so profitable, why should we not treat our oats before planting them?

For the past 20 years the following method of treating seed oats for smut has been in use:

Spread the oats to be treated on the barn floor or in a light wagon box. Make a solution of one pint of formaldehyde to 40 gallons of water. Sprinkle the oats with the solution until they are thoroughly saturated, using one gallon of solution to 1 1-4 bushels of oats. As one person sprinkles another person should shovel the oats over until every grain is thoroughly wet. As soon as the oats are sprinkled and well mixed, cover the pile with blankets or sacks that have been wet with the solution, so that the formalin gas cannot escape. It is the gas that kills the smut spores. Leave the oats covered from six to 10 hours, or overnight. Then remove the blanket and spread out the oats as much as possible to dry. Treated oats can be sown as soon as they are dry enough to run through the drill. Set the drill to allow for the swollen condition of the oats. Oats may be sown at once after uncovering if drill is set to sow one-fourth more per acre.

This method has been very satisfactory. It may, perhaps, be preferred to any other method by a large number of those who have used it.

But the Iowa Agricultural Experiment Station, by extensive tests covering a period of three years, has demonstrated that the time and labor required for treating oats may be greatly reduced by using less water in the solution. The method advocated by the Experiment Station is as follows:

Make a solution by using one pint of formaldehyde to 5 gallons of water. This is enough for 50 bushels of oats. Sprinkle one gallon of solution over 10 bushels of oats, shoveling the oats while sprinkling so that the solution is uniformly distributed. Sack the oats as soon as the solution has been thoroughly applied and plant next morning.

This stronger solution entirely kills the smut, does not injure the oats and makes it unnecessary to dry the oats before sacking. And because the oats can be immediately sacked and tied up, little of the gas escapes. It will not make a great deal of difference which of these two methods we use. The important thing is that we treat our oats. It is not good business to permit this great annual loss to continue when it is so easy to put a stop to it.

Is the modern woman going Antique?

YES, the girls wear Empress Eugenie hats—but that seems to be the only noticeable tendency that the modern woman is going antique.

Isn't it rather hard to imagine yourself tearing down the street in an old surrey, say at 3 miles an hour? Picture, if you can, a modern woman reading a true story by the light of a kerosene lamp.

No, you wouldn't want to live like they used to.

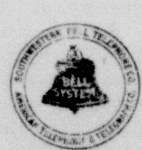

Perhaps one of the things you would miss most would be the telephone. Wonder what Grandma did when these things happened: pouring down rain, and not a grocery in the house; no way to order quickly . . . friends, haven't seen them for days; no way to reach them . . . noise in the basement; burglars, maybe! . . . no telephone book with the names of friends, relatives, business houses . . . relatives in a distant city; are they well? . . . a child's face, pale against a pillow; a doctor, quick!

It is hard to do without a telephone. Why should you, when the service costs so little?

TEXAS AND TEXANS.

By
Will H. Mayes
"All Texans for All Texas"

Farm Warehousing.

The greatest need on Texas farms is facilities for holding products on the farms until they can be sold to advantage. Farmers of a half century ago had granaries for their corn, wheat and oats, cribs for their corn, smokehouses for their meats, sheds for their cotton, barn lofts for their hay, cellars for fruits and vegetables. When prices were too low they held for higher prices, which are always certain to come.

There was never a better time for building than now. Building material and labor are low. Most farmers have time in which to build, and almost any one can do the work required to construct such buildings as are needed for farm storage. The advance in wheat and other grains since the harvest of last spring has been sufficient to pay all the cost of permanent granaries on any wheat farm in the country. Farmers must learn to conserve what they make and must quit giving it way to the first bidders.

Favor Waterways.

The Corpus Christi Intracoastal Canal meeting enthusiastically favored the early completion of the intracoastal project and also the improvement of the Trinity, Brazos and Guadalupe rivers as a Federal undertaking. Without recommending particular plans or ways, the canal association urged that a careful study be made of the various Texas waterways projects as a means to aid in rehabilitation and stabilization of economic conditions.

United States engineers at the meeting stated that the Intracoastal canal from near New Orleans to Galveston might be completed late in 1933 and that, if all goes well, work would begin on the Galveston, Corpus Christi section next summer. This section is now being surveyed.

Wearing Out Roads.

Heavy trucks operated for private profit are wearing out Texas highways constructed by the public faster than they can be built, although Texas is spending $50,000,000 a year for road building and maintenance. A California visitor to Texas recently told me that the highway from Dallas through Austin is the worst stretch of road he had traveled in making a 3,500 mile trip. That the wavy in the road are so deep and so numerous that one has to go 15 miles to make 10 miles of progress, and that his car was damaged more by road use between Dallas and San Antonio than on all the rest of the 3,500 miles. Trucks have become a menace not only to the roads, but to those who use them. The Railroad Commission is justified in making the most rigorous actions governing trucks possible to be made under the State laws.

Injunction Limitations.

The Court of Civil Appeals at Waco has held that a court has no authority to restrain by injunction peace officers from arresting violators of the law, thus setting aside legislative provisions, contrary to the plain provisions of the Constitution. This opinion was given in a case where a district court had enjoined officers from arresting parties charged with violating recently enacted truck highway laws.

Tax Payment Division.

To get advantage of the extension of payment of one-half of the State and county taxes until June 30, 1931, without penalty or interest it is necessary to pay one-half of such tax prior to November 30, 1931. If the first half is not paid on or before November 30, the full amount becomes delinquent February 1, 1932, and then calls for a 10 per cent penalty and 6 per cent interest.

Expensive Noise Making.

Firing sunrise and sunset guns at 300 Army posts in the United States costs taxpayers $265,000 annually, and firing salutes to visiting civilian and military dignitaries costs an additional $65,000 a year. The amount is small in the huge Army appropriations, but doubtless it could be used to better purpose or saved.

Asking Budget Cuts.

Citizens of Cameron county think cost of county government should be reduced from $290,000 to $190,000 a year, several hundred having signed a petition for such a reduction. Among other things asked is to terminate delinquent tax collection contract and consolidate 57 tax assessing and collecting agencies.

Publishes Fee Costs.

State Senator Purl produces figures to show that it costs nearly $6,000 to convict a criminal on a felony charge in Texas. Austin papers have been publishing the costs of trying criminal cases in the district courts of Travis county. Newspapers can render great service in creating sentiment against the Texas fee system by publishing the items of fee expenses in court trials. The Texas legislature could, if it would, reduce court expenses at least one-half, but to do so would have to ignore strong lobbies of officials and lawyers who are fattening at public expense.

Teachers Appear Prosperous.

It is announced that more than 6,000 Texas teachers are expected at the State Teachers Association meeting at Amarillo the last week in November. At an average cost of $50.00 each for traveling, hotel and convention expenses, the neat sum of $300,000 will be turned loose by the teachers.

Harper Lad's Luck.

A Dallas banker, who was attracted favorably to the interest of Harvey Stevens, Jr., of Harper, in fine cattle, on hunting trips of the banker to the Stevens ranch, has "staked" the lad with ten of the finest thoroughbred cows ever seen in that section, as a nucleus for a herd of beef cattle. Another instance showing that it pays to show interest in what one is doing. The Harper boy had little idea that such a boon would ever come to him.

Prosperity Pointers.

The $2,000,000 power project on the Guadalupe between Seguin and Gonzales is nearing completion. Two large dams, near Gonzales, have been completed and the third, near Seguin, is in the final stages.

A farmer, near Eagle Lake, will plant 200 acres in radishes under contract with a marketing company and others will likely plant additional acreage in that locality.

Poultry plants at San Angelo are employing 250 to 300 persons in preparing turkeys for shipment. The capacity of the plants is about 5,500 turkeys daily.

Banks recently closed at Corpus Christi and McAllen announce plans consummated for early reorganization.

Two San Antonio banks have had such an increase in business this fall that they have had to enlarge their banking quarters.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce says the West Texas cotton yield for 1931 will be twice that of 1930, and that, even at the low prices, farmers are paying their debts. More than $400,000 of drouth relief loans have been repaid.

Nearly 6,000 head of Texas cattle were sold at Ft. Worth the first week in November to be shipped to feeders in Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Oklahoma and Wisconsin.

A Tyler packing plant is handling 100 head of beefes daily and distributing the products by trucks to 50 East Texas counties.

Tyler is raising funds to erect a $200,000 hospital in the down-town section.

Jasper has opened an air port on former golf course property, the work of preparing grounds being done by volunteer subscriptions and labor.

Work will soon begin on a $150,000 postoffice building at Plainview.

A $100,000 plant is being erected at Texon to remove sulphur from gas produced in Reagan county fields.

WOULD GET RID OF THE SHARPS.

Mr. Fred W. Davis:
Dear Sir:

We country people appreciate your effort in trying to help solve the farm problem. I am the wife of a farmer—a middle man or shipper—and consumer. Please don't think I have three husbands—I have three in one, so I feel like I can give you some light on the so-called farm problem.

In the first place the farm business is so interwoven with middleman and consumer that it is hard to get at the master. The Federal Farm Board had a beautiful theory as to how produce could be shipped from the producer to the consumer—and it would have worked too if they had not tried to take the handling of this produce out of the hands of the middleman. The middle man is not any more dishonest than any one else. He has to take a lot of chances handling perishable goods. So many people in the city will try to go into the produce business without any experience. Five times out of ten they will fail, then that has to come back on the shipper. Cotton and wheat of course is different. The man who trades these crops has to take chances. You say, "Gambling in farm products injurious to producers' interest." Yes it is, but, Mr. Davis, life is a gamble. It is like a game of poker. The man who wins is the one who knows when to stay in on a hand. That is the same with business of all kinds.

The person who has given us the most help on solving the farm problem is Will Rogers. He will tell you that the GRAFTER, CITY SLICKER, FAKE PROMOTER is the cause of most of our trouble. It's true too. When you think back and see what these pests have done for the country it is a wonder that we are not in a worse shape than we are. They can always find some one in your town who will fall for their get-rich scheme. Now if you can think of some way to eliminate these crooks you will be doing the country a great favor.

Personally I am not in favor of the farmer using government money for promoting anything. You know how hard it is for a farmer to make enough to support his family and pay his taxes. So please tell me how he can pay the interest much less the principal on borrowed money. Mr. B. E. Staddams, the manager of the dairy association in this part of the country, has done more to help our people than any one else, and he did not do it on Federal Farm Board Money either. He will tell you how he did it if you wish to know. Another thing that would help our country is for we Southern people to stick together and elect a Democratic president. I see by the Houston Post Dispatch where the Democrats have twenty-five governors lined up to help put the right man in office.

Thanking you again for your efforts in helping us all, I am,

Yours truly,
Mrs. T. C. Edwards,
Alvin, Texas.

HOW TO KEEP TRACK OF EGGS.

By Juliette Frazier.

On poultry farms where a large number of eggs are gathered daily it is often difficult to keep track of the eggs. One of the most practical and simple methods is to build a rack containing four shelves made of boards about twelve inches wide. The shelves should be fourteen inches apart, and twenty-eight inches long. Buy eight ten-quart galvanized buckets, and with black or blue paint mark on each a day of the week, and on the last "Home Use." When Monday's bucket is taken out, and the eggs are gathered and brought in and placed on its proper place on the rack, there can be no mistake as to where Monday's collection is, as on with the rest of the week. In the "Home Use" bucket may be kept eggs for the table, all cracked or misshapen eggs that are not marketable. This device will not only simplify the care of eggs, but will prevent many mistakes. For instance, every poultryman knows how disappointing it is to find upon his return from town that the new-laid eggs have been sold while there are plenty of three-day old eggs on hand.

THE FARM PROBLEM

By Fred W. Davis, Contributing Editor

FINANCIAL SYSTEM FAILS TO PROPERLY FUNCTION.

Public men in trying to relieve farm conditions usually concoct remedies founded upon misinformation and based upon governmental domination. They are always trying to devise something special or different for the farmers' business. Do we need governmental assistance, except to arrange ample finances for longer than customary time and with the avowed purpose of backing the business of farming? The nation is already plastered with expert advisors. Washington seems to be as strong for a diversification of governmental bureaus as it is for the diversification of crops. The farmers need their business simplified rather than weighted down with more governmental red-tape. They need to be placed on a plane of general business, not separated still further from it. Who can explain the state of the public mind when it tries to resort to financial legerdemain in order to sustain an indispensable business and finance products that are better collateral than government bonds? If it does not take new financial schemes to sustain the purchasers of farm products in a profit-making business, why is it necessary to do so in order to sustain the farmers on a profit-making basis? Farmers merely purchase their products through the hazardous channels of production. Our present banking system with its reserve, is the best financial scheme yet devised for sustaining the business of farming. The big trouble is that it is not permitted to function for this purpose, with the proviso again put in, if the purpose is to demand a fair profit above costs.

The Federal Board Banks had been behind the farmers in marketing their products for the latter period of the war and up to 1920, then financial aid was suddenly and arbitrarily withdrawn. During this period of real financial assistance, we almost forgot the farm problem and if the banks lost any money, it was after deflation. No one ever knew high priced raw material to result in anything but general prosperity, nor low priced raw materials to result in anything but general business depression. Although the 1920 crop had been produced at an enormous expense, with everything at peak prices, the farmers were not permitted to gradually readjust their business affairs, but were compelled to go into immediate liquidation. This withdrawal of financial aid was announced to the world, coupled with the statement that prices MUST come down. According to the Comptroller of the currency at that time, (the Hon. Jno. Skelton Williams), more money was loaned by our Reserve Banks to two speculative banks in New York who reloaned it at usury, than was furnished the banks that served twenty-two of our largest producing states. Contrast the period of financial help with the period following its withdrawal. Every other major business was permitted to slowly readjust its affairs, which a strong purchasing power made possible. The railroads were legislated into prosperity and the manufacturers of farm implements advanced their prices the next season about 30 per cent. Excuse it all we please, the action of the Federal Reserve Banks in 1920 was a determined denial, at that time, of the right of producers to collectively ask a just return for their toil and investments. Are we afraid of independent rural business?

THE FARM RELIEF ACT.

After years of agitation the Congress enacted the Federal Farm Relief Act. A board was created to carry out the announced purposes of the Act. These purposes, briefly stated, are to minimize speculation, prevent waste and put the sale of farm products upon the same economic plane as the sale of the products of industries. It is to be regretted that so far, the Federal Farm Board has not even attempted to carry out these purposes. To minimize speculation it is necessary to curb the activities of exchange gamblers. But instead of doing this the Board has joined the exchanges and gamblers with the people's money. The endorsement of exchange gambling by the Federal Farm Board is adding insult to injury. The Board is not permitted to bull the markets to the detriment of the buying public, but recent sales of wheat by the Board proves they can bear the market to the detriment of the growers. This, however, is in keeping with the government's past record. Time and time again bear cliques have depressed the markets and bankrupted the growers and nothing was done about it. But, a number of years ago, when the bulls got control, the Attorney General of the United States prosecuted them because he claimed they conspired to corner the markets and put the price of cotton higher than the spinners should have to pay for it. If it is the duty of the government to defend the spinners against bull operators, isn't it equally the government's duty to defend the growers against bear operators? Shouldn't our government be ashamed of such rank discrimination? Can farmers hope for justice if this attitude is not changed?

To prevent waste or loss in the sale of farm products, it is necessary to simplify the methods of distribution in order to provide an efficient and economical system of marketing. Instead of doing this the Board has joined the most inefficient and extravagant method ever known to the trade. They are trying to coerce farmers to accept a made over organization which the Board knew had been repudiated and a failure. The Board has shown rank discrimination by denying public funds to cooperatives other than the one they choose to favor. Surely any cooperative properly organized, that has the collateral, is as much entitled to the people's money as any other cooperative. The services rendered would determine which cooperatives would get the farmers' support. And services rendered is the only true test of a cooperative's worth. It was claimed that the Board would merely help the farmers to work out their own problem but instead of this they directed and dominated from the start.

To put the sale of farm products upon the same economic basis as the sale of the products of industries would necessitate the evaluation of

National Wool Week, November 9, 1931

Western cities and towns in wool producing sections will take the lead in promoting National Wool week, beginning November 9, with stimulation of woolen sales to increase consumption as the final aim.

This was definitely announced by National Wool week committees, following the last meeting in New York City where leaders of all branches of the trade, from growers to retailers, endorsed all publicity plans for the coming event.

Suggestions were made that sheep men and western merchants unite to promote the week through luncheons at chambers of commerce and service clubs. State women's clubs will be asked to conduct part of the campaign through gatherings and through instructive talks to school and club meetings.

THE SOUTH'S BEST COTTON SUBSTITUTE.

Newspapers of the west also will play an important part in National Wool week through special editions telling the value and worth of the sheep industry to its own state. Retail merchants, as well as wholesalers, are planning attractive offerings to buyers during the week and many sales will be held. Window displays will feature virgin wool clothes from the far west.

While this intensive western campaign is under way, eastern wholesalers and big retail stores are making plans to concentrate on the week with special advertising and constant reminders to buyers of the dates for the event.

Mill men and experts in the wool trade will give radio talks, special lectures and conduct luncheons among tradesmen to stress the value of wool as a wearable material, with remarkable new features in style as well as quality.

These are two pages taken from the current issue of FARMING, Hondo's farm and home monthly journal. FARMING is 50c a year or sent with The Anvil Herald one year for $1.75 for the two. Other club rates are shown hereon. Let us have your subscription for these or any magazine published.
